Lutz-JESCO America Corp. is pleased to name Dowell J. Sparks as our new Sales Engineer. Dowell will report to Brian A. Schor, our National Sales Manager, and support Lutz-JESCO's outside sales efforts. Mr. Sparks has extensive experience in the Lutz-JESCO Metering Pump Line, as well as Accessories, and Measuring & Control. Dowell's background in centrifugal pumps will also support Lutz-JESCO's efforts in the Magnetic Centrifugal Pump Market.

Dowell joins our team in strengthening Lutz-JESCO's commitment to providing our customers with the highest quality of fluid management products, backed by experience and knowledgeable customer service. With this change, we look forward to an even more prosperous future, marked by expanded product lines and increased support of our representatives.
